Three National Horseplayers Championship Berths to be Awarded

Hollywood Casino at Penn National Race Course (HCPN) is proud to announce an exciting new format for The World Series of Handicapping® Tournament (WSH) for 2019. The Grand Daddy of Handicapping contests in North America, The WSH, which started in 1976 and written up in Playboy magazine in the early 80's, will once again use Live Action Wagers but will give the player the ability to bet both Win and Place for tournament play. The WSH will offer Three Berths to the National Horseplayers Championship (NHC) sponsored by the NTRA in Las Vegas in February 2020, in addition to cash prizes and live pari-mutuel payoffs. 4. Contest Format

Contest Players will be provided with a wagering card loaded with One Hundred Dollars ($100) as their starting contest bankroll. Any Contest Player attempting to add funds to his/her contest bankroll is automatically disqualified from the Contest.

Contest players will be required to make wagers on a minimum of ten (10) contest races. The Player may only wager on one (1) horse in each race. Wagers may be Win, Place or Win and Place and must be a $10 minimum for each wager (i.e. $10 to Win, $10 to Place or $10 to Win and Place for a total cost of $20). There is no limit on the number of races that may be played beyond the minimum of ten races. Any wagers made on any race other than win, place or win and place wagers on designated contest races may result in disqualification from contest. Latin American races are NOT included if a designated track offers them. Any Contest Player failing to meet these minimum wagering requirements is automatically disqualified from the Contest. All wagers must be placed on self-service machines using a PIN number.

The Contest Races are any live races being run from the following Racetracks:

In the event of a late scratch, a Contest Player's Contest Wager is refunded and the Contest Player is permitted to place another Contest Wager on another Contest Race. If a late scratch occurs during a race that would prohibit the Contest Player from meeting the ten (10) minimum Contest Wager requirement, the Contest Player may cancel the scratched/refunded Contest Wager and make a replacement Contest Wager in the same race as the scratched/refunded Contest Wager was originally made. The Sponsor reserves the right under these circumstances to make a final decision on the validity of any and all Contest Wagers, without recourse from the Contest Player.

Official track rules and regulations apply to determination of the winner in all Contest races.

Sponsor's decision in all matters relating to this contest is final.

5. Determination of Contest Winner

At the end of the Contest, each Contest Player's bankroll is calculated and the order of finish determined by the highest bankroll. No Contest Player may withdraw any funds until Sponsor confirms the Contest Player's bankroll.

In the event two or more Contest Players finish with the same bankroll amount, then the following tiebreaker procedure is instituted:

- a. Among those who tied, the Contest Player selecting the most winners over the entire Contest receives the higher-finishing place.
- b. If a tie still exists for the initial tiebreaking procedure, then the Contest Player with the highest paying winner (actual pari-mutuel payoff result) in a single Contest Race receives the higher-finishing place.
